

NOTICE
BUSINESS LICENSING BY-LAW AMENDMENTS

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE (1) - Tuesday,
November 22, 2022

On November 22, 2022, the City of Vaughan Committee of the Whole (1) will consider and receive input from the public on a staff report to introduce a number of technical amendments to the Licensing By-laws, as well as a report on the introduction of new type of business licence for the snowplow contractors. Proposed amendments to the Licensing By-law include:

1. amending the referral of permit fees for the clothing donation drop boxes to City's Fees and Charges By-law; and
2. requiring a criminal background check and identification for body rub parlour operator licences; and
3. requiring photographs to be submitted with applications for mobile and stationary business licence applications; and
4. confirming that directors of corporations must submit criminal background checks in their applications for adult entertainment parlours, body rub parlours and second hand goods licence; and
5. updating photograph requirements in line with the new online licence applications process; and
6. introduction of new type of licence for snowplow operators and its requirements; and
7. additional licensing requirements for fence and pool installers, renovators, landscapers and pavers (maintaining equipment in good state of repair, business's name and details on all business stationary, not creating hazardous condition).

The public is invited to provide comments with respect to this matter at the meeting:
